Remarks -

1 He was being given a sum of Rs 5/- as night duty allowance in addition to pay from March 1931 This amount is not taken into account

2 From 28-7-1940 he was permitted to join Army as per Commissioner's No A5 L Dis 134/40 dated 27th July 1940 He joined the Army on his own accord

3 From the statement it will be seen that the official was serving in the Municipality for more than 13 years and he was drawing higher pay He was appointed on Rs 40/- as Foreman and he reached the maximum pay viz Rs 50/- in August 1932

4 The cost of establishment in which he was working is chargeable to works The appointment is not a pensionable one and as such the rules governing the grant of pension or gratuity to Employees (vide appendix 'C' or 'Q' to M S R) cannot be applied in this case But considering the long period of service rendered by the official on a higher pay, this case has to be considered as a special one for granting some remuneration If the post in which he was working was a pensionable one, he would have got a pension of Rs. 10-8-0 per month Under the above circumstances, a lumpsum grant of Rs 250/- as remuneration, may, if approved, be sanctioned as a special case
